Any email sent to this address will show the sender's email address. Your name and email address will be used to respond to your inquiries.

We will not use the information gathered through this Site for any other purpose or provide this information to a third party, except when there is a legally-based request for disclosure, when the person whose information is to be used has consented to the use, or for any other such special reason.

Cookies and Tracking Technology

Some parts of this website may use cookies, which enable the Shimogori lab to track usage patterns, enforce security, and offer you customized content. A cookie is a small text file that the website's server places on your computer hard drive as a unique identifier. Note that our cookies do not collect personally identifiable information.

Links to Other Sites

This website contains hyperlinks to other sites. Note, however, that the Shimogori lab does not share personal information with any of these sites, and the Shimogori lab is not responsible for their content and/or privacy policies.

Links

You are, in principle, allowed to post a hyperlink to this Site on your own website; prior permission is not required. We do ask, however, that you send us by email the URL of the website on which you have posted our hyperlink. When posting our hyperlink, please ensure that it is correctly shown as the hyperlink to “Marmoset Gene Atlas”. We also ask that the hyperlink only be posted on your top page to avoid any misunderstanding of intent. We may ask you to delete the hyperlink if the content of the website is judged to be inappropriate.

We do not allow the posting of our hyperlink in the following cases.

- When a website slanders or may possibly slander the reputation of, or otherwise infringes on the privacy of, a specific person or organization.
- When a website is offensive to public order and morals, or poses a danger of being offensive.
- When a website is perceived to endorse or recommend the activities of a specific person or organization.
- When a website is detrimental or causes damage to a specific person or organization, or poses a danger of doing so.
- When there may be a misperception that there is some kind of cooperative relationship between the website and this Site or that this Site recognizes or endorses the website on which the hyperlink is posted.
- Any other kind of hyperlink posting that is deemed inappropriate by the Shimogori lab.

The content of third-party websites with hyperlinks posted on this Site or which post a hyperlink to this site are the responsibility of those third parties. This Site bears no responsibility for the content of third-party websites or for any damage resulting from the use of those third-party websites. This Site does not endorse the use of third-party websites or of the products, services, companies or the like offered on those websites. Please be aware that by using such third-party websites, you are agreeing to their terms of use.

Citation

While we encourage you to use our resources for your research or other noncommercial purposes, we want to ensure that our resources are afforded proper citation in all cases where it is used publicly. If you cite or display our resources, or reference our resources, in any format, written or otherwise, including print or web publications, presentations, grant applications, websites, other online applications such as blogs, or other works, please indicate that the images are taken from our web site (<https://gene-atlas.brainminds.jp>) and cite the paper published in Neuroscience Research (Shimogori T et al., Neurosci Res. 2018 Mar;128:1-13. doi: 10.1016/j.neures.2017.10.009) and PNAS (Kita et al., PNAS 2021 118(18):e2020125118). Also we appreciate your contact to let us know when acknowledging the Shimogori lab and our online resources (send us message).

Change in Policy

The Shimogori lab may change the contents of this policy as necessary. Any changes made to the content will be notified on the website.

Although we will be cautious about making changes in the policy, we will not be responsible for any damage caused by the change.
